

The Wisconsin Center for Missing Children & Adults (WCMCA), a division of Operation L.A.P. Foundation, Inc. (OLAPF) was founded due to the disappearance of Alexis Patterson. She came up missing after going to school about 8 a.m. on May 3rd, 2002. She still has not been located and we have no clues at this time as to what or who is responsible. This was followed by Christopher Samples being abducted May 31st 2002. Since that time many others have been recovered by the assistance of the staff of this group. OLAPF is here for the recovery of ALL Missing Children & Adults in the name of Alexis Patterson, and now expanding into the "Wisconsin Center for Missing Children".
